

Sinclair Broadcast Group's actions show why we need the Fairness Doctrine back. American Democracy has been weakened by the one-sided partisan attacks in the media.

The use of our public airwaves should involve much more responsibility than it currently does.

In addition, it is appalling that one group can reach a quarter of American households and essentially hold hostage what they can see. We need a more diversified media, not less.

Sincerely,
Lisa and John Barclay